

WORDS FROM
Pastor Randy

God is good all the time! He has been so good to the First Baptist Family. His blessings are evident most everywhere. These are exciting days of preparation for the upcoming Easter season. Take note of the special things that will be happening throughout this month. What a wonderful opportunity to invite a friend or a loved one to share in the great things our Lord is doing here at Saks.

It's great to be seeing so many visitors in our worship services. "There's a sweet sweet spirit in this place," the song says. Let's get the good word out . . . God is still at work among His people.

The Bible says that "Jesus loved the church and gave himself for it" (Ephesians 5:25). We too should love the church and support it with our attendance, tithes, offerings and service. God still chooses to work through the organization of the local church. Jesus said "I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew 16:18). With Jesus as the Head and Builder of the church, we can know that its leadership can still be trusted and followed. It is my prayer that each of us will look to Jesus to continue blessing our First Baptist Family. He knows our need and is making every necessary provision.

The greatest joy to my heart will be that First Baptist Church keeps her vision to reach lost people with the love of Christ and to teach those we reach to follow Him faithfully.

Thank you for the joy of serving the Lord as your Pastor. I consider it an honor to be among such a loving group of God's people. Join me in praying for the days ahead. The future that God leads us toward is bright and the opportunities are boundless as we follow Him.

May God bless you and your family. Looking forward to seeing you each Sunday in the Lord's House,

Pastor Randy
