

WORDS FROM
Pastor Randy

When will we ever stop trying to please everybody?

It really is impossible to keep everybody happy. It has been said that you may be able to please some of the people all of the time, and you may please all of the people some of the time, but you can never please all of the people all of the time!

Yet, there will always be those people in our lives who want us to somehow be just like them. They find their emotional security in making sure that we match up to their every expectation.

Why don't we stop trying to tell everybody how to live their life! We will never share the same convictions. No two of us will ever agree on all the issues. And that's OK!

Why do we allow ourselves to be put into everybody else's little box?

I don't need for everybody to be like me. To be quite honest, I can't think of anything worse than there being two of me! One is enough in this universe, and sometimes too much . . . just ask Ms Tammy!

I can't insist on you being just like me? I don't need to be like you. You don't need to be like me. We just all need to be more like Jesus! AMEN!

God wants you to be free ... free to learn, discover, grow, and even free to fail. So be free from the bondage of what others are always thinking about you. Thank God that I can be free to just be me.

Start living in grace and enjoying the wonderful life that God gave you. We are each unique and absolutely original. May God forgive us for all the time we've wasted trying to fit into everybody else's expectations!

We've lived miserably long enough trying to please everybody. We have not been placed on this planet to please people. One day in eternity, the only One we'll have to answer to will be the Lord Jesus Himself!

So relax! Find His agenda and spend the rest of your life fulfilling it to the very best of your ability.

See you in church!

Pastor Randy
